Questionnaire:

- 1. What do you love most about Coralville?
The people. Coralville is home because of the amazing people I have met during my time here.
- 2. With so many overwhelming issues to address, what would be your primary focus on city council?
We need diverse, creative thought to create new revenue streams to fund numerous community projects to enhance all community members' lives.
- 3. How will you promote a healthy business environment?
Businesses need to feel supported and heard by city officials. I would ensure there was a trust built between owners and the city.

4. What motivates you to run for city council?

Our city needs the injection of ideas that incorporate the experiences of the past with the fresh, eager, innovative thinking of today's youth.
